Morrison & Co appoints Geraldine Buckingham as Board Director

23 March, 2023

New York, Sydney, London: H.R.L. Morrison & Co ('Morrison & Co'), the global infrastructure investor, has appointed Geraldine Buckingham as a Non-Executive Director, from April, as the firm continues to grow its presence in North America, the UK and Europe.

Geraldine joins the Morrison & Co Board following a distinguished executive career in funds management and financial services. She spent seven years at global investment manager, BlackRock, where her most recent executive role was Chair of Asia Pacific. In this position, she oversaw all business activities across China, Japan, Australia, Singapore, India and Korea. Immediately following this role, she acted as senior adviser to Larry Fink, BlackRock's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, until she retired at the end of 2021. She previously held roles including Global Head of Corporate Strategy at BlackRock and Partner with McKinsey & Company's financial services practice based in New York.

Geraldine holds current positions as Independent Non-Executive Director at HSBC Holdings plc and Non-Executive Director of Brunswick Group Partnership Limited. She is also a member of the Advisory Board of Climateworks Australia.

Rob Morrison, Chair of Morrison & Co, said, "We're delighted to welcome Geraldine to our Board. Following Kate Mingay's appointment as a Non-Executive Director last year, the addition of Geraldine means we now have a Board that reflects the firm's growing global footprint, with significant Board experience across North America, the UK, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand."

Commenting on her appointment, Geraldine Buckingham, said, "I'm thrilled to be joining the Morrison & Co Board at such an exciting time for the business. The firm has an impressive track record of investing in essential infrastructure that addresses the long-term needs of society while delivering strong returns for investors. I'm looking forward to supporting the firm at this pivotal point in its global expansion."

Morrison & Co has deep investment and operating experience in digital infrastructure, renewable energy, transport and social infrastructure including healthcare. The firm takes a high conviction approach to investing, backing long-term secular trends such as decarbonisation, ageing and digital connectivity.
